
Song

By

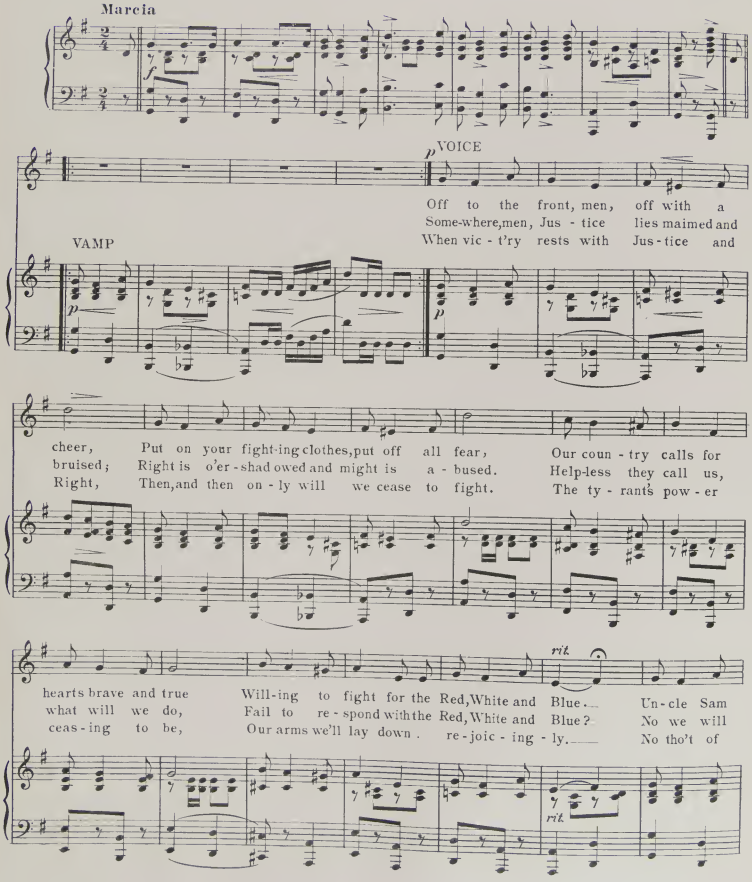
K. M. BLANKLEY.

5

Published by
THE AUTHOR,
TOLEDO, OHIO.

OFF TO THE FRONT

K. M. BLANKLEY



Marcia
f
VOICE
p
Off to the front, men, off with a
Some-where, men, Jus - tice lies maimed and When vic - t'ry rests with Jus - tice and VAMP
p
p cheer, Put on your fight-ing clothes, put off all fear, Our coun - try calls for bruised; Right is o'er - shad owed and might is a - bused. Help-less they call us, Right, Then, and then on - ly will we cease to fight. The ty - rant's pow - er rit.
hearts brave and true Will-ing to fight for the Red, White and Blue. Un - cle Sam what will we do, Fail to re - spond with the Red, White and Blue? No we will ceas - ing to be, Our arms we'll lay down. re - joic - ing - ly. No tho't of rit.

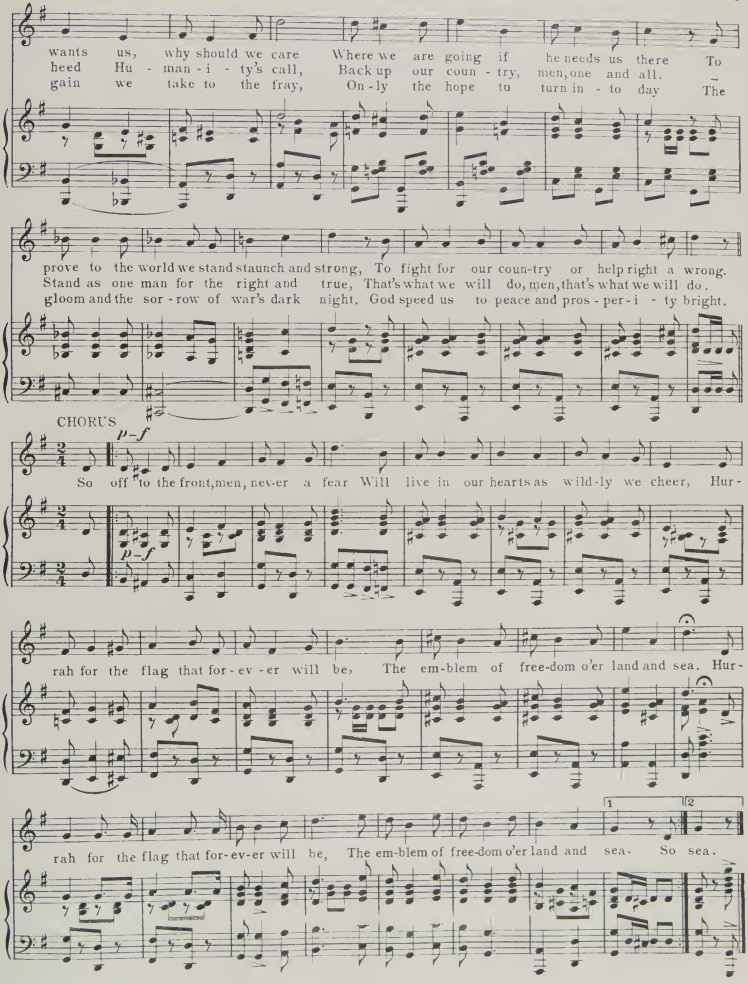
Copyright MCMXVIII by K. M. Blankley.
All Rights Reserved.



wants us, why should we care Where we are going if he needs us there To heed Hu - man - i - ty's call, Back up our coun - try, men, one and all.
gain we take to the fray, On - ly the hope tu turn in - to day The prove to the world we stand staunch and strong, To fight for our coun-try or help right a wrong.
Stand as one man for the right and true, That's what we will do, men, that's what we will do.
gloom and the sor - row of war's dark night. God speed us to peace and pros - per - i - ty bright.
CHORUS
p–f
So off to the front, men, nev-er a fear Will live in our hearts as wild-ly we cheer, Hur-
p–f rah for the flag that for - ev - er will be, The em-blem of free-dom o'er land and sea. Hurrah for the flag that for-ev-er will be, The em-blem of free-dom o'er land and sea. So sea.
1
2